2 Year Commissioner

Reg Tadd

Reginald C. Tadd

Reginal Tadd has been a businessman in Wasatch County for numerous years. He seeks to promote to the rest of the state the benefits that exist in Wasatch for businessmen.

Reg is seeking re-election to the 2-year commission position. Reg is the incumbent, and has served for the past two years.

"I'd like to see industry come into the valley," said Tadd. Tadd explained that since the pollution controls are stiff, it would be good to have light industry that could use the facilities that are established in Heber City or around the county.

Tadd feels that the tourism industry is of great benefit to the rodeo club 8 years, has been involved with many civic and community organizations and is presently serving as a member of the Wasatch County Parks Board Commission.

I believe with this broad background of service and experience, I have a knowledge of what the people of Wasatch County want and need.

My wife and I have 13 children and 2 grandchildren. We are happy with the education and economic opportunities that our community offers.

As your commissioner I would work to encourage industrial development that more of our children may have a livelyhood here.

I seek your vote on Nov. 6. If elected I promise you fiscal responsibility, and will do all in my power necessary to see that Wasatch County meets the needs of its citizens.

As a citizen and candidate, I feel very strong that it is everybody's responsibility to vote. For those who have not registered there is still time to do so. Then everyone get out and vote so the voice of the people will be heard.
